Section B(ii)

Dear mum,

I would suggest that you buy a power bank for brother. He is now studying in a university. It would be troublesome for him to find a socket to charge his mobile phone in the university compound. With a power bank, he can charge his mobile phone when a source of electricity is unavailable. Moreover, the power bank has built-in battery protection to prevent overcharging. It is also convenient to bring along as it does not take up much space in his backpack.

Section C

Question 1

It was the rainy season and for one whole week, the rain poured continuously. The water in the river overflowed and flooded many low-lying areas.

Kampung Gulam was one of the areas affected and the villagers had to be evacuated to higher ground. At the flood relief centre, the victims were given hot drinks, food and milk for the babies. Some had to be given clothes and blankets as they could not save anything in time.

It was such a relief to see the sun again when the rain subsided and the floodwaters receded. The victims started to return to their homes. After a week of uncertainties and chaos, life returned to normal.
